Hi Joseph,

It was a pleasure speaking with you today. As discussed, we will revisit some of the interrogatory responses citing to documents and determine whether a more specific citation can be provided. If we decide to supplement our responses, we will do so in the next couple weeks.

As for the request to supplement our responses as to Wexford's federal funding, we reiterate our objections.

Thank you and have a good weekend,
Maria

Tomorrow 3-4 works better for me than this afternoon. I'll call you then. Thank you again!

This afternoon works well, when do you have in mind? Alternatively, tomorrow between 3-4 works well too.
